
Presenter handouts

Presenters - You can post your handouts here. You can also begin a threaded discussion about your workshop and include your handouts in any post. Just scroll down to attach documents and images. Anything posted here is viewable on the web, and any attachments are downloadable. If you don't want an attachment to be downloadable, you should use <http://www.slideshare.com> and post the link to your slides here. Slideshare now allows you to load Word docs too, but I haven't checked to see if docs can be set to non-downloadable.

Hope this helps,
Nini Beegan, DLDS

Here is the PowerPoint from the "Knowledge Before the Need" pre-conference at MLA 2009.

Presenter was Andrew Sanderbeck of People-Connect Institute.

Right before he jabbed Johnson in the mouth, he reportedly looked towards the Texans' sidelines and said, Watch this. If that report is true, then his actions were premeditated (look at me breaking out the lawyer speak) and therefore he should be suspended. But Johnson? robes de mari"le robes de mari"le . No way.
